Alberta and Prairie Shelterbelt Programs

Each year the PFRA offers free seedlings to farmsteads for the purpose of Shelterbelts, however this year the program is short of free seedlings and cannot promise availability.

However if you still wish to apply for free trees, application forms are available at the MD office for Farmers and Acreage owners, or you can visit their website :

www.agr.gc.ca/pfra/shelterbelt_e.htm

The Alberta Nurseries offers nine varieties of tall growing willow and poplar, six varieties of midsized trees including chokecherry, May Day and nine varieties of fruit and hedge. Varieties of evergreens include spruce, larch and pine.

An application fee of $26.25 with a $23.00 + GST fee for each bundle of ten trees purchased. Applications can also be submitted over the internet at www.marketland.net.

Applications for both programs will be received until March 15, 2011 and early applications have a better opportunity of getting the trees you want. The ASB will pick up the trees for distribution in late May.
