A HEARTFELT TRANSFORMATION:

PALLIATIVE SUITE RENOVATIONS NOW COMPLETE!

We are proud to announce that the renovations to the Palliative Suite are now complete.

A Huge Thank You to Ryan Squires, the Hospital Administrator, for his commitment and support. He has unfailingly encouraged the renovations; doing whatever was necessary to help us achieve this goal.

To Yvan Beaulieu and Rob McNally, the Hospital Maintenance Department, who have gone above and beyond. They painted the Palliative Rooms, they put together all the furniture (and it was a fair amount...and if you've ever put furniture together, you know how much work that is); and offered help and assistance along the journey. Ryan, Yvan, and Rob have each expressed a personal and deep commitment to the work of Palliative Care. Thank you.

Of course, it wouldn't have happened without the support from the Rycroft AG Society and their generous donation from last year's Spring Break Up Dine & Dance.

We would also like to acknowledge Judy Brown and Carolyn Kosabeck, who have loaned their artwork to the Palliative Suite to help make the Suite more comforting and welcoming.

Together, we are proud to offer this service to our community.

Sincerely,

The Palliative Care Committee

Dixie cautioned that during the summer months, people tend to be busy and forget to take care of themselves and this can compound already existing issues; so, make sure to drink plenty of water, stretch, and book your appointment today.

Now entering her sixth year in the region, Northern Balance Massage is open Monday to Friday, by appointment only.

You can make an appointment by calling (780) 864-9214 or by booking online at www.nbmassage.janeapp.com.

CHIEF'S BRIEFS

The fire department has responded to 109 incidents so far this year, including assistance to our mutual aid partners Saddle Hills County and Birch Hills County. Everything from Medical First Response calls to Motor Vehicle Incidents and Fires.

This relationship between the various Fire Departments is key to delivering the best service possible for all those residents in the municipalities. We all work very hard to protect the safety of the public, our number one priority.

As in the little article we posted in the last newsletter about pulling over and stopping for emergency vehicles, I have noticed a huge change to conform to the rules of the Highway Traffic Act regarding this matter. I would like to thank everyone for pulling over and stopping, making responding to an emergency a little bit safer for your emergency responders.

Your Fire Department works very hard to keep up to the training standards that are required to give the best possible service we can to the public. In recent years we have had almost half of the department certify to a level 1 and level 2 firefighter, a huge achievement for a volunteer service, by which we are very proud for their accomplishments, commitment to training and the Community.

I would also like to inform everyone that Central Peace Fire and Rescue Commission along with the local municipalities, are embarking on bringing you a new fire hall in the future, to move our department forward. The proposed building will be located on the corner of 47th Ave. and 52nd street in the Town of Spirit River. The old fire hall has been in use since approximately 1949 in Spirit River and now the Fire Department has outgrown this building.

All activities the Fire Department Association will be doing, will be to raise funds for the new building. Everyone is very excited about this news as we move forward into the future.

One other note I would just like to remind everyone to be very diligent until winter arrives when using fire and burning of brush piles. It only takes a moment to become large and out of control when not watching it.

Remember to check your smoke detectors, change the battery.

Thank you for your continued support.

Common Tansy | NOXIOUS

OVERVIEW: Common tansy is a perennial forb that reproduces by both seed and short rhizomes underground horizontal roots. Introduced from Europe in the 1600's, its pungently aromatic foliage has been used medicinally, as an insect repellant, and for embalming. Common tansy forms dense stands and the plants contain alkaloids that are toxic to both humans and livestock if consumed in large quantities. Cases of livestock poisoning are rare, though, because tansy is unpalatable to grazing animals.

PREVENTION: Because of its long medicinal and horticultural use, Common tansy is still available in plant nurseries and from herbal remedy suppliers. Gardeners should not purchase or grow Common tansy.

CONTROL: Grazing: Common tansy is unpalatable to cattle and horses, but sheep and goats are reported to graze on it. Cultivation: Since this plant is rhizomatous, flowering stems can re-grow from severed roots, therefore cultivation is not a control option. Mechanical: Regular mowing can reduce seed production but must be repeated to eliminate regrowth from rootstock. The most effective control method combines mowing or hand cutting with chemical control and encouraging competition from native vegetation. Repeated stem removal depletes the food energy stored in roots.

CHEMICAL: Aminopyralid (alone in a product mix with 2,4-D), Chlorsulfuron (alone or in a product mix with Metsulfuron-methyl), Metsulfuron-methyl (alone or in a product mix with Aminopyralid), and Tribenuron-methyl are registered for use on Common tansy.

Thank you!
