WELCOME Shelley Loroff, Our New FCSS Coordinator!
Hello!! My name is Shelley Loroff, and I am excited to introduce myself as the new Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) Coordinator. You may know me from my employment at Peace Adult Learning Society (PALS), as I was the coordinator there for 5 years. I was born and raised throughout Alberta. I moved to Ontario when I was 17 and spent 25+ years there, before I moved back to Alberta in 2011. I have four grown children, two girls and two boys. I live on an acreage in the Volin area with my husband. Since moving to this area, I have been involved with many community groups. These include, but not limited to, the Central Peace Community Garden Park and the Central Peace Food Bank. I was a municipal representative on the FCSS board for 3 years. I look forward to serving this area of the Peace country again as the FCSS Coordinator.
